

The 3 Dimensions of your Career

There a three dimension to every career.

1/ Your ability to do the work.

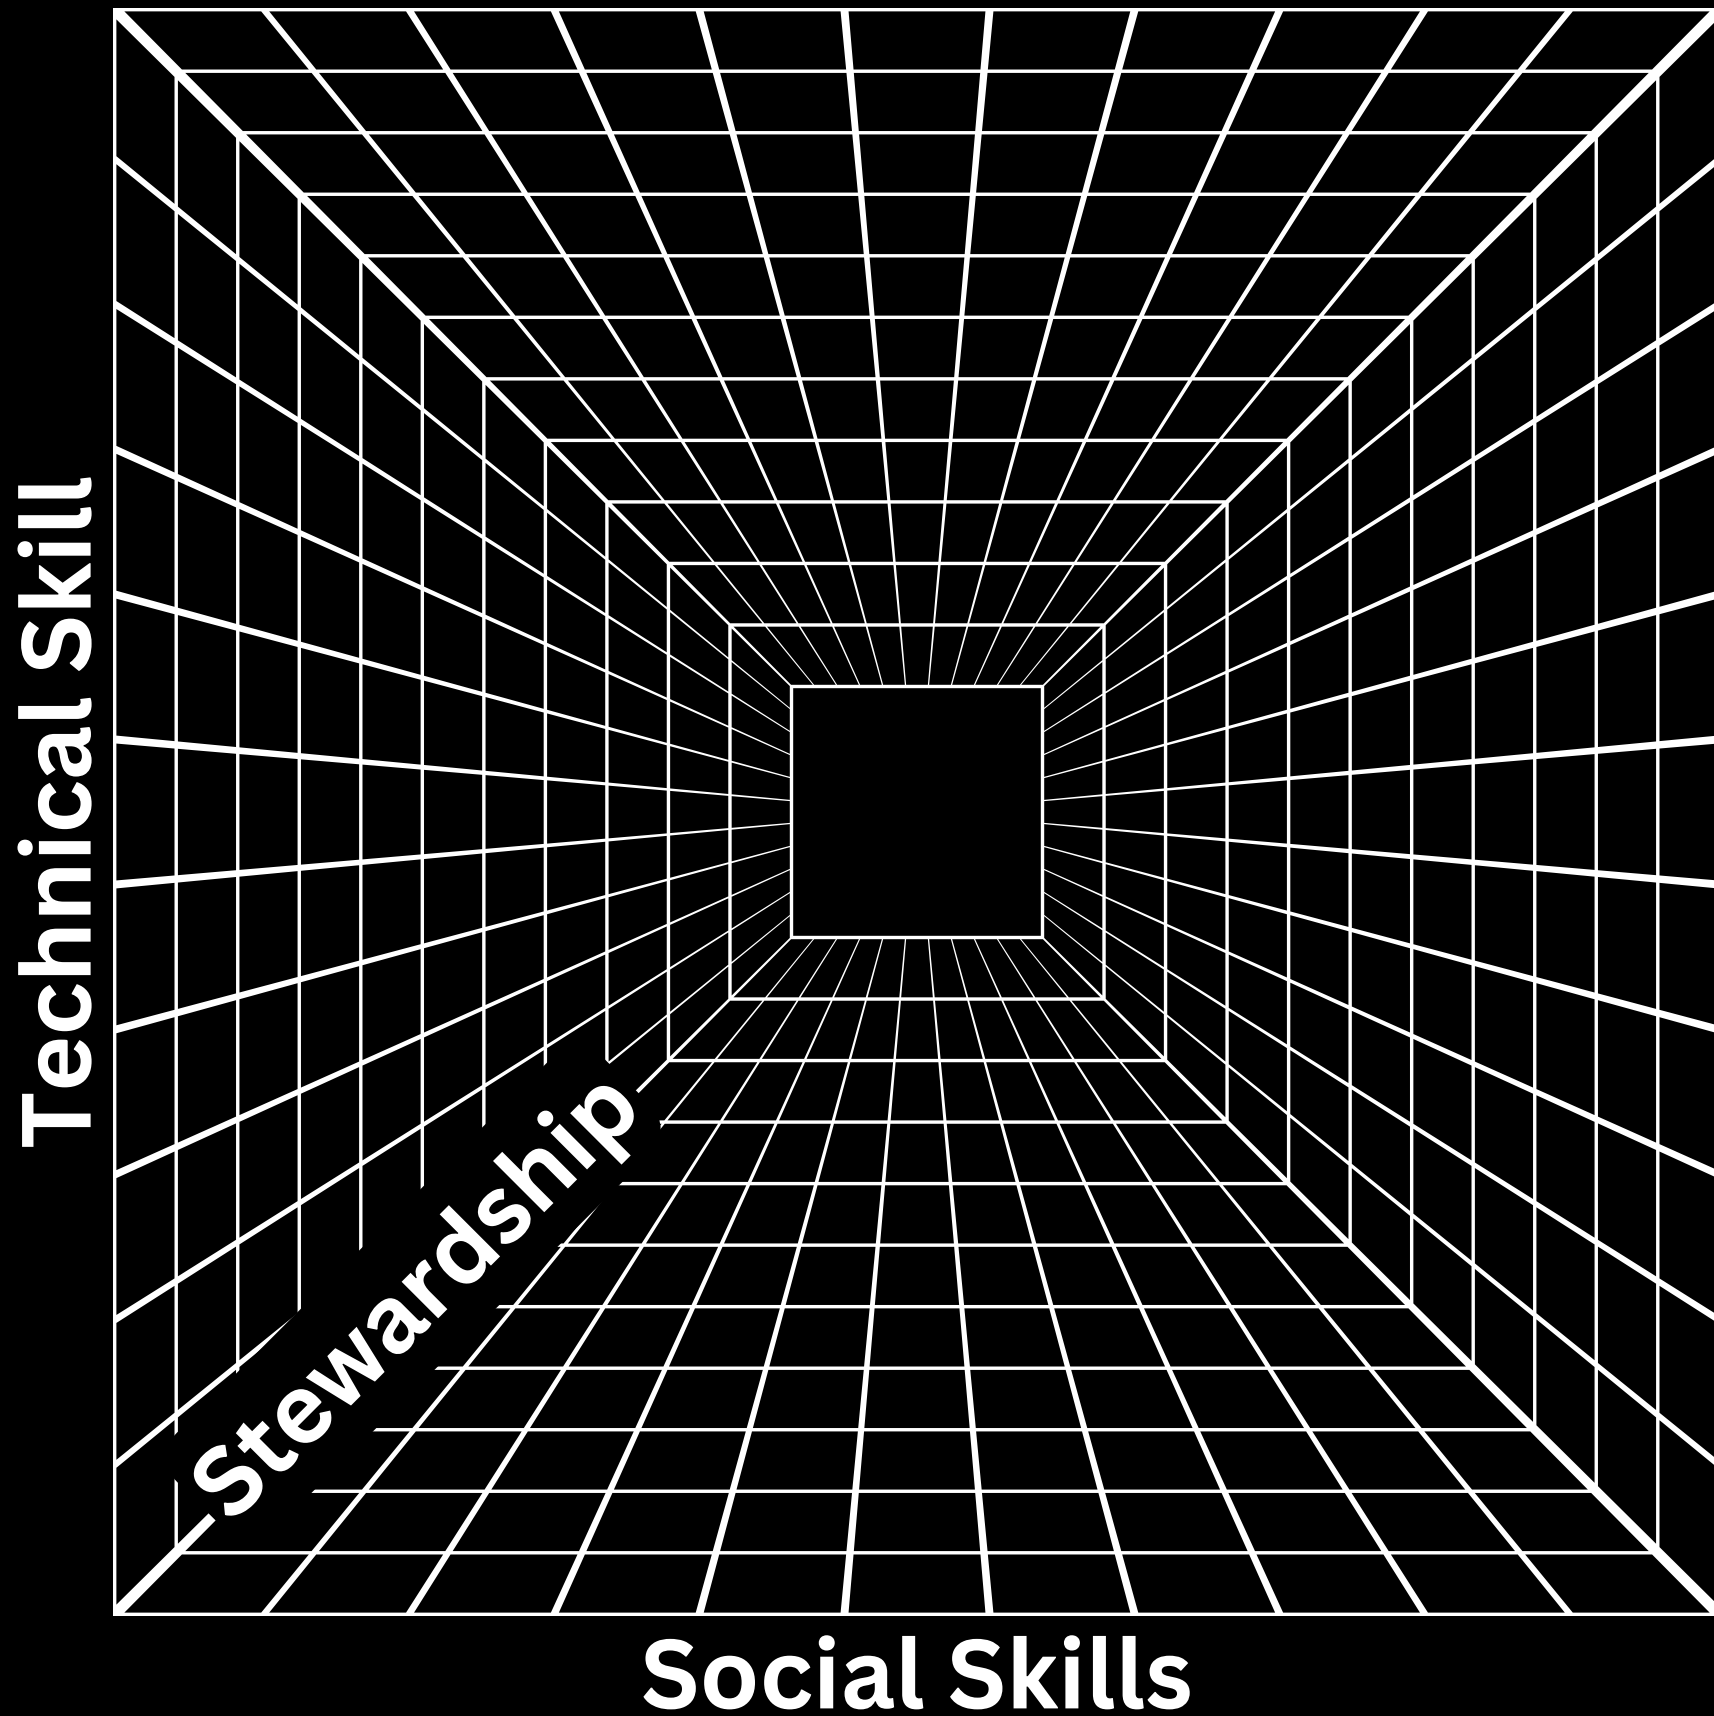

Technical Skill

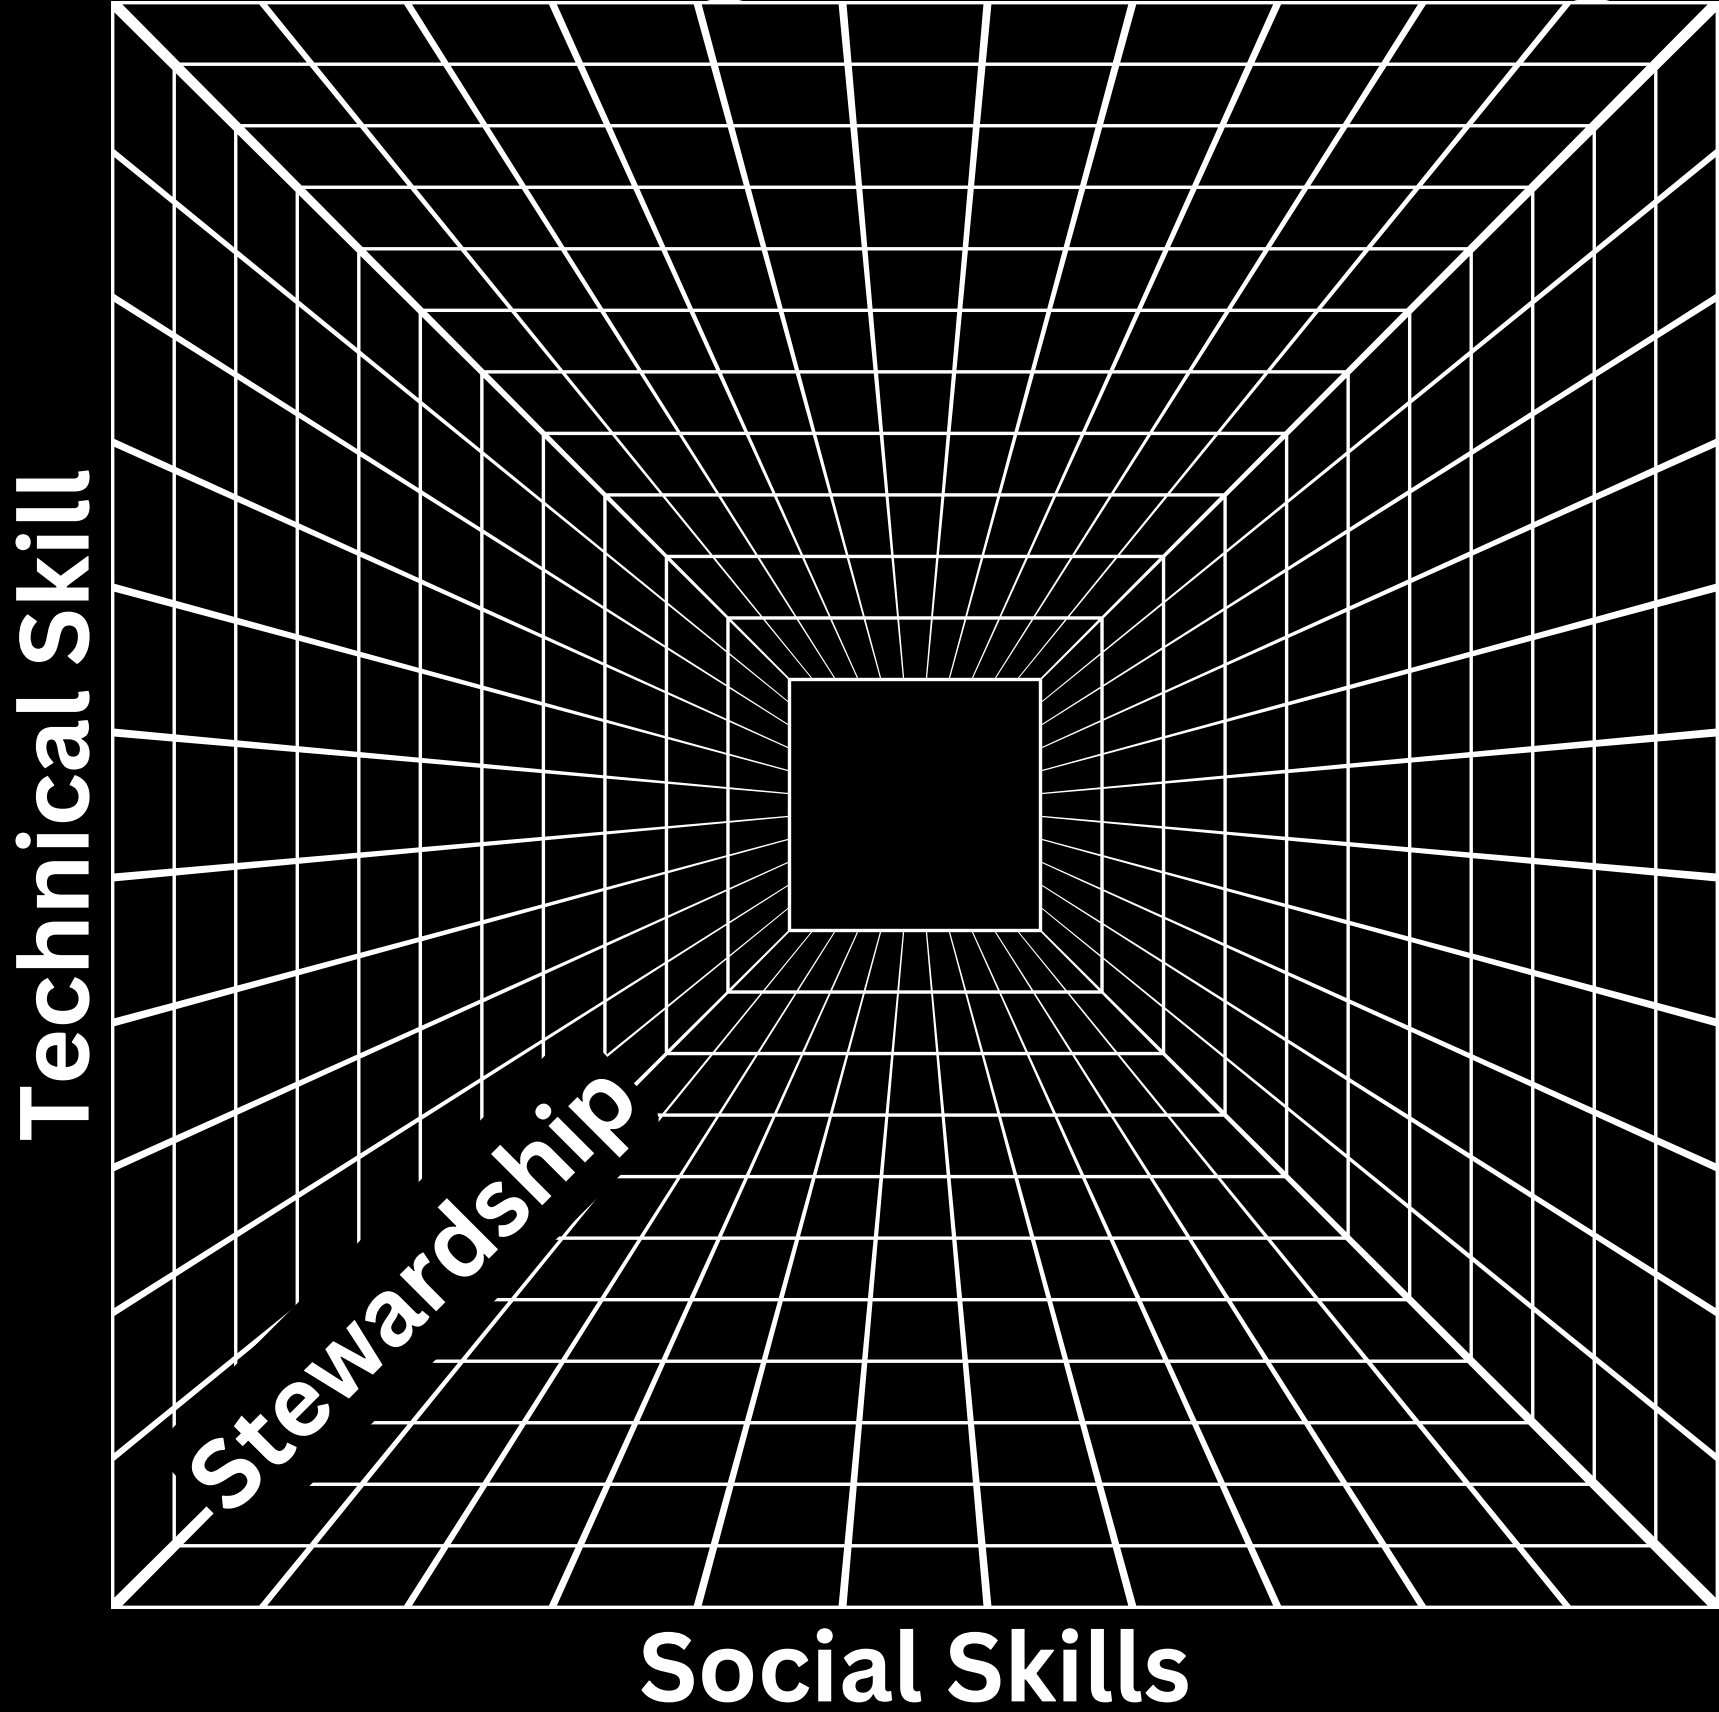

2/ How you interact with people.

3/ How you represent the profession.

Each dimension takes time to develop and no one gets them all right.

But, knowing that these are the main three lets you focus on what's important.

Technical Skill

To develop your technical skills you must be learning on your own time.

Technical Skill

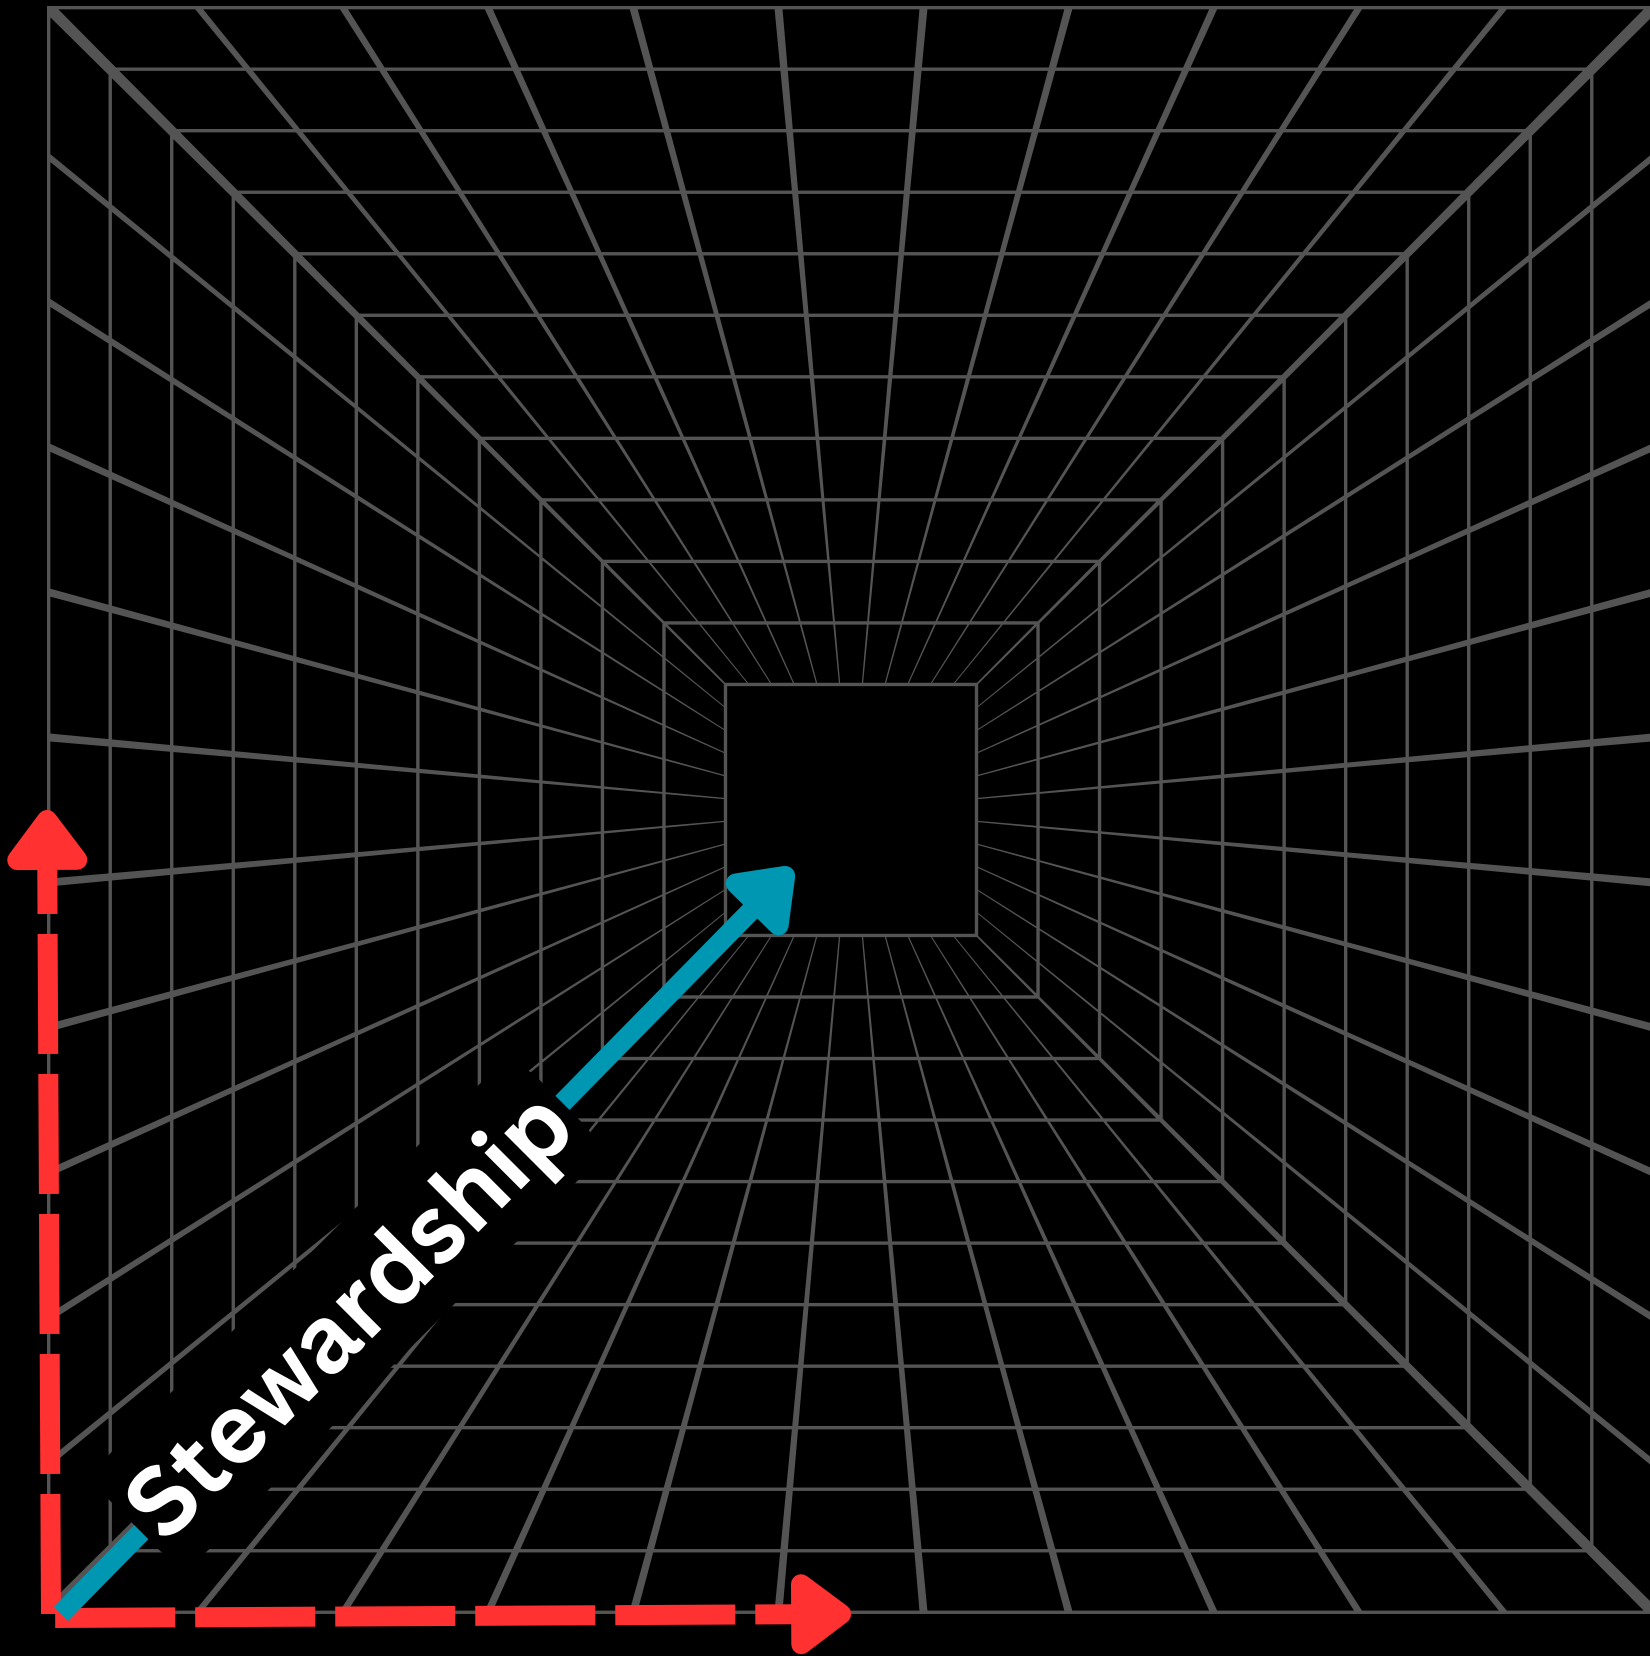

Social Skills

To develop your social skills go to Toastmasters and learn public speaking

Technical Skill

Stewardship

Social Skills

To be a steward dream big, give back and get involved.

Before you know it you'll build a career that you can be proud to look back on.

Share and like if you agree so others can learn to.
